10 of the best self CROSSBODY bags!

It's 2020, and we simply can't remember life without crossbody bags. Especially the small and practical variations, which are otherwise known as camera bags – for no reason other than to confuse your boyfriends or husbands, as well as to annoy you when they keep questioning the lack of photography equipment in said bag. (A handy trick is to address your smartphone, which does a very good job of doubling up as a camera... you're welcome!) Crossbody bags have quite remarkably taken over the fashion world these past few seasons, and with one dreamy design emerging after another, it really isn't hard to see why. Gucci essentially ignited our resurrected obsession with the camera bag style crossbody bag, thanks to its Arli collection. But the Italian fashion house is by no means a one hit wonder, as GUCCI has produced several lust-worthy crossbody bags since. And many of them have had some very impressive results. We've got old school classics like Valentino and Versace and then there's more of our favorite brands – hang on, did we just name all of your dream handbags?

So without further ado, let's take a look at 10 of the best crossbody bags currently available to snap up. Because we can all agree that it isn't as fun looking at and drooling over bags you can't purchase the very second you fall in love with them. We are an impatient generation, are we not?

Valentino

Valentino Garavani's 'Rockstud Spike' shoulder bag is made from soft quilted leather and punctuated with miniature studs - each one is galvanized to retain its glossy shine. It opens to a surprisingly spacious interior that's fitted with 10 card slots and just enough space for your lipstick, keys and cell phone. Detach the chain strap and carry it in hand as a clutch to dinner.

Chanel

Introducing with the Gold-Tone, Silver-Tone & Ruthenium-Finish Metal Purple, Black & Blue this handbag is a Venn Diagram center where Chanel lovers and goths collide. Reworking the Parisian house's classic flap bag in a moody purple, this subtle update will be sitting pretty in your closet for years to come. It also offers a genius solution for those of us who can never choose between gold and silver hardware: Why not both?

Gucci

Paying tribute to its '70s prints, patterns and accessories, Gucci first presented the 'Arlı' bag at the label's Resort ' show. It's been updated for this season in supple burgundy leather accented with black trimming and has the signature 'GG' moniker. The dual-compartment interior makes it a great choice for those who don't pack light.

Versace

What do your phone, your wallet, an old lipstick and some emergency snacks have in common? They all belong in this Virtus crossbody bag from Versace - with beaded floral detailing amid a spacious body, this bag fits all your essentials and more. We've got you covered. Featuring a gold-tone chain shoulder strap, a foldover top, a Virtus logo plaque to the front and beaded floral detailing

Michael Kors

Introducing the Extra Small Crocodile Embossed Leather "Cece". Designed in a fold-over silhouette accented with polished hardware and a lock-and-key detail, the "Cece" crossbody bag delivers the refined sophistication we all need for this very special holiday. The new extra small crocodile leather embossed "Cece" comes in this season's most coveted shades; soft pink, butter cup and light blue.

Dolce Gabbana

Straight from the Dolce & Gabbana runway, this mini edition of the 'Devotion' bag is made from supple quilted leather. The structured silhouette is centered with heart-shaped hardware surrounded by scores of tiny faux pearls. It opens to reveal a zipped pocket, perfect for your cards.

Prada

Prada's large bag is aptly named 'Cahier' after the French translation of the word 'notebook' - the gold-tone hardware recalls the intricate bindings of antique books. Made in Italy from smooth white leather, this one is defined with contrasting black textured-leather trims and has an adjustable long strap to create your perfect drop. The accordion-like interior compartments will keep daily essentials neatly organized.

Coach

Based on a Coach favorite introduced in the 1970s, the Riley is a slender design perfect for nights out and days on the go. This lightweight Signature chambray and glovetanned leather silhouette features a ladylike top handle, three expandable interior compartments and a detachable crossbody strap. The iconic Coach Horse and Carriage, which was first introduced in the 1950s, accents the snap closure.

Balmain

B-buzz crossbody bag

We know everyone comes with baggage. But it can be a good thing, especially if we're talking about this B-buzz crossbody bag. Balmain is the kind of baggage you'll want to keep hold of.

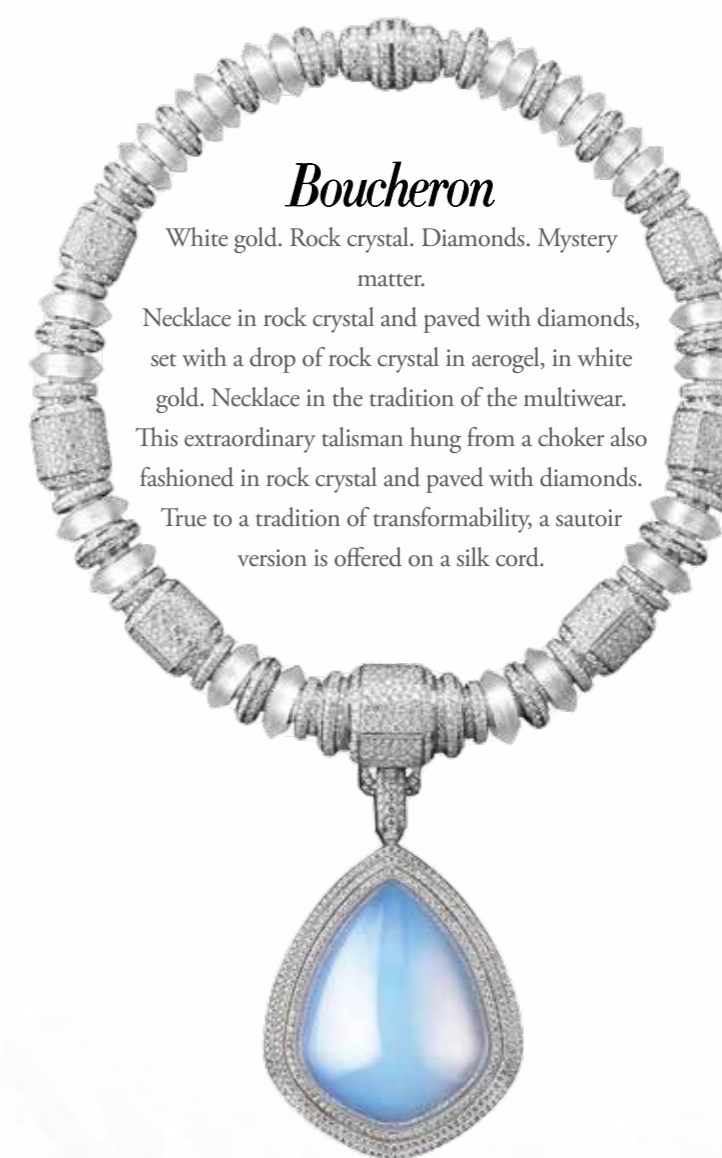

Givenchy

Nothing says you have your life together quite like a Givenchy handbag. Crafted in Italy, this red quilted accessory is stamped with the designer name front and centre in gold. Become a grown-up. Featuring a foldover top with snap closure, a top handle, a detachable and adjustable shoulder strap, a quilted effect, gold-tone hardware and multiple interior card slots.

Boucheron

White gold. Rock crystal. Diamonds. Mystery matter.

True to a tradition of transformability, a sautoir version is offered on a silk cord.

Chopard

Chopard's Happy Spirit fascinates by the repetition of the concentric circle motifs centred around the dancing diamond, at the origin of the rippling pattern in the water. From the smallest to the largest, the rings nestle perfectly inside each other. Little Diamonds Do Great Things.

House of Garrard

The House of Garrard introduces colour to its much-loved Wings Embrace design, balancing iconic silhouettes with the most delicate shades of gemstone. Responding to demand, Garrard has enhanced Wings Embrace with new designs inspired by the iridescent colours cast as light passes through crystal. Pink and yellow sapphires and aquamarine catch the eye within the openwork of angel wings, which represent peace, purity and protection

Mouawad

As an ancient token of love and beauty, the rose has charmed and delighted cultures for thousands of years. Used in art, architecture, fashion, and jewelry, rose motifs have become sublime and were once sacred symbols for goddesses. With the extensive Rosette collection, Mouawad has brought the rose motif to life, crafting an iconic symbol that continues to permeate celebrity culture.

AQUAE JEWELS

A charming element of surprise is neatly woven into the collection, with delightfully innovative mechanical elements.

Trend to Try

STRIPES!

It's been a long time coming, but today we want to talk to you about one of the most hard-working yet timeless trends of all. Stripes. No matter what the big name designers present on the biggest catwalks of the world, stripes are always going to be on trend. We've seldom seen a Fashion Month without a handful of seductive stripe infusions, which just goes to show that stripes are in it for the long haul. Big stripes, small stripes, horizontal stripes, vertical stripes and even multi-directional stripes (yes indeed) – they're all on trend! In the winter months, stripe knitwear proves particularly popular, especially as far as oversized scarves and bobble hats are concerned. There's nothing quite like adding an exciting pattern to otherwise monochrome winter warmers. And once the summer season emerges, we know we aren't the only ones who love the idea of stripe swimwear (bikinis, one-pieces, cover-ups, you name it) as well as the must-have stripe beach bag. You know the one we mean – everyone has one, and it always seems to get an exciting make-over every season! Like the shameless temptresses we are, we've rounded up some of our absolute favourite stripy numbers for your perusal. There is no corner left unturned and no stripe left unexplored.

Chloe Gosselin

Elevate your mid-season style with some stripe shoes – and they don't come more sumptuous than these bright and bold Chloe Gosselin beauties. The striking pink and white colour combination immediately caught our eye, which makes them a must-have purchase for those confusing months in-between seasons. Wear them with cropped jeans to jazz up a casual ensemble, or even with cropped white trousers and a matching blazer for your next brunch with the girls. Or go all-out and team them with a bright fuchsia dress at the peak of summer. We're fans of everything! Chloe Gosselin 'Narcissus' striped sandals

MDS Stripes

Where do we even start? Stripes by name and stripes by nature thanks to this must-have midi skirt from MDS Stripes. This skirt brings the drama not only with its voluminous midi shape, but also thanks to its easily recognisable multicoloured multi-stripe pattern. A dream for the upcoming spring/summer season; simply team this stunning piece with an un-distracting white top, some dainty and elegant strappy sandals and a miniature clutch bag in complementary shades of green, blue or red. MDS Stripes asymmetric striped cotton poplin skirt.

Vetements

Another mid-season dream, and therefore perfect to wear right at this very moment. See, we are so practical and considerate with our choices! The designing experts behind these Vetements split toe ankle boots have hit the nail right on the head. We adore the progressive and modern design that features a lot of our favourite things. Pretty pastel colours, contrasting heel shades, feminine touches (thanks to the ribbon) and of course, stripes. They are just what is needed when you're bored of winter and want to will the spring season along, but the weather isn't quite warm enough to brave open toed shoes. Yet, thanks to their canvas material, they are also light enough to be worn in slightly sunnier climates too. Talk about getting the best of both worlds! Vetements 'Geisha' striped canvas lighter-heel ankle boots.

SAINT LAURENT

Bianca striped leather and suede platform sandals Saint Laurent's black and gold Bianca sandals capture the house's high-octane sensibility through a 1970s-inspired platform silhouette. They're crafted in Italy from striped panels of plush suede and leather with a knotted front strap and are raised to a leg-lengthening block heel. Accentuate the glamorous mood with a mini dress and clutch for an evening occasion.

Gucci's orange and pink dress appears in the eclectic Pre-AW 20 lookbook, among an array of retro-tinged tailoring styles. It's woven in Italy with silver stripes for a shimmering effect and cut for a relaxed fit that can be tempered with a detachable belt, before flaring out to a longline skirt with an inverted pleat at the front. Team it with a boxy bag and block-heel sandals for an eye-catching occasion edit.

Diane von Furstenberg

Diane von Furstenberg knows a thing or two about flattering and empowering women. She is the unrivalled queen of the wrap dress, i.e. one of the most figure-flattering dresses that have been generously bestowed upon women over the years. But the wrap dress isn't her only gift to women around the world, oh no. Diane von Furstenberg and her team work tirelessly to produce flattering, on-trend pieces for women every season – and this stunning striped dress is just one of their many victories. Complete with slimming vertical stripes (the oldest trick in the book – but why mess with the formula when it works so well?) and a striking blue floral print, we simply cannot rave about this silk dress enough! DVF Diane Von Furstenberg floral print striped dress.

Versace

Multicoloured striped one piece from Versace Jeans Couture featuring a round neck, a striped pattern and a graphic print.

Dolce and Gabbana

And now we have one of the most subtle, elegant and feminine takes on the stripe trend thanks to this stunning blouse from the Italian masterminds at Dolce and Gabbana. The inclusion of a pussybow adds instant femininity, which is one of the many reasons we are head over heels for this blouse. We would wear this silk blouse juxtaposed with a fierce leather skirt – or leather trousers when we want even more attitude. Alternatively, it works just as well with equally feminine pieces too, for example tucked into a floaty maxi or some cropped white trousers. In other words, there's no wrong way to wear this piece.

PRADA

“What’s that on your head?” - yes, that’s what you’ll hear every time you step out into the world with this Prada headband. With contrasting white diagonal stripes and multicoloured floral embroideries, this piece will make your outfits look even more high-fashion. Goals!

Shark bracelet
Black and white leather Shark bracelet from Givenchy featuring a silver-tone twist lock fastening, a striped pattern and a wraparound design.

Bienen-Davis

Bienen-Davis's gold Xenon miniaudière clutch brings glossy glamour to your evening looks with its vibrant lurex stripes. The unique construction comprises a detachable 1930s-inspired 24kt gold-plated clutch sat within the arching carry handle, opening to reveal a useful mirror and a rich red velvet lining. Style it with gleaming gold jewellery for coordination.

Gucci are known for creating heritage-inspired accessories with a statement twist, and this Sylvie Tote bag is a bold example. The baiadera fabric is inspired by the flowing dresses of Indian dancers, and has been brought back from the House's archives and reinterpreted with the Sylive Web colours of white, blue and red, and is decorated with the 1980s-inspired Gucci vintage logo. Carry it against the season's checked suit set.

Haider Ackermann

Trend or no trend, there's always going to be a place for striped trousers in our wardrobes! What's not to love about a chic, crisp pair of trousers with leg elongating stripe detailing? A fashionable alternative to the classic black trouser; when striped trousers are done right, they have the ability to up the class factor on any outfit. We challenge you not to look and feel smart and sophisticated with a pair of well-made striped trousers – which these Haider Ackermann trousers definitely are – and a wellfitted blazer.

Marques' Almeida

With fun and colorful dresses like this, it's no surprise that Marques' Almeida's designs are coveted by Jorja Smith and Kendall Jenner. It's crocheted from soft merino wool in vertical rainbow stripes that have a lengthening effect on the body. Emulate the label's styling by layering yours over the matching pants.

Style crushing on...

JENNIFER lopez

Are you sitting comfortably? Comfort isn't mandatory, but we would seriously encourage sitting down, because what we're about to tell you might shock you to the point of fainting. Jennifer Lopez celebrated her 51st birthday this year. Regardless of how many different ways we say it, or how many times, it's quite difficult for us to process. All you need to do is look at our front cover or any picture on these pages to see why we are scratching our heads in confusion and disbelief that the woman staring back at us is not a fresh faced 20-something at the beginning of her career. J-Lo really is proof that age really is just a number. Her glowing face and goddess-like body that would make even a Victoria's Secret Angel green with envy are just the beginning of our – and the rest of the world's – resurrected obsession with her. Don't get us wrong, we've always been huge fans of the actress and singer, but there's something about her recent style choices that have made us pay more attention than ever before. Jennifer's style is chicer, sexier and more on point than ever right now, which is why she has dominated red carpets around the world and topped global best dressed lists for every event she has graced with her presence. Let's take a look at some (but most certainly not all!) of J-Lo's greatest and latest red carpet victories. Do you have a favourite?

2020 Oscar Party in Julien Macdonald

We know that Jennifer Lopez has mastered the sexy, ultra glamorous look, as well as the chic and sophisticated high fashion look- and we certainly aren't surprised to find that she has conquered the "quid metallic dress from Macdonald's Spring / Summer 2020 collection. Add a slit to any outfit and you instantly have a Jennifer Lopez approved look. She topped off the emerald look with silver hoop earrings, heels, and a matching clutch, along with several sparkling jewelry pieces.

2020 SAG Awards in Georges Hobeika Couture

This is Jennifer Lopez doing what Jennifer Lopez does best – and that's blowing everyone else out of the water the second she steps onto the red carpet. J-Lo unapologetically owned it in this breathtaking Georges Hobeika dress at the SAG Awards, throwing together everything that we love about her – and so much more! J-Lo channelled Middle Eastern sophistication in a sleek shoulderless gown and the sculptural black dress featured an oversized bow with two gliding ribbons that transitioned on to become a dramatic train. This is not the first time that Jennifer dazzled on the red carpet, nor is it the first time she donned a stunning creation from the Lebanese designer but needless to say, the duo seem to be a match made in heaven.

2020 Critics' Choice Awards in Georges Hobeika

Like a fine wine, Jennifer Lopez seems to have got better (as well as hotter, and more stylish than ever!) with age. The Hustlers actress picked a Georges Hobeika backless gown that had a row of studded diamonds on it. She accessorised with diamond-studded earrings, a diamond cuff and ring to go with her look. She pulled her hair back into a half-up ponytail that was styled into cascading waves. The dress hugged every dreamlike curve like it was designed especially for her. Talk about fitting like a glove! It kept on going in the form of sparkly earrings, and an almost blinding clutch bag. Jennifer Lopez doesn't do things by halves, in case you didn't already know!

2020 Golden Globe Awards in Valentino Haute Couture

Valentino has dressed his fair share of style icons over the years for the annual Golden Globe Awards. The Hustlers star was nominated for her role in the 'Best Supporting Actress' category. She arrived at the red carpet wearing a long, white, voluminous gown, which featured an enormous gold-and-green bow at the top of the dress. We can't take our eyes off the shimmering green choker necklace and green earrings, which is exactly what the red carpet is all about! Flawless as usual, Jennifer!

■ 2019 Hustlers' Toronto Film Festival Premiere

Canary yellow. We didn't think anyone else could wear a canary yellow dress- or canary yellow anything if we're being totally honest. Yet here Jennifer Lopez is, looking nothing short of breath-taking in her yellow dress by the Egyptian label Maison Yeya's couture collection. The stunning dress featured a plunging neckline and a long train at the back and a high slit at the front. It's clear that Jennifer was going for the sexy Hollywood screen siren look – and she certainly achieved what she set out to do. She brightened up the red carpet with a blonde bob cut and fresh dewy makeup. Her Maison Yeya gown had lots of eye-catching ruffles and she paired it with a clutch that looked like a stack of cash.

■ 2019 Met Gala in Atelier Versace – 2019

This isn't the first time that Jennifer Lopez and Versace killed it on the pink carpet. Lopez was sparkling in Silver Fringe at the Met Gala. Jennifer Lopez and a couture Versace gown truly made magic! The breathtaking gown was perfect for the evening. Add a slit to any outfit and you instantly have a Jennifer Lopez approved look. And when you have perfect pins like Jennifer Lopez does, you would be foolish not to show them off at any opportunity. Fairly subtle make up, complete with a matching nude lip and some drop earrings finished off her look in the best way possible. This might just be one of our favourite Jennifer Lopez red carpet looks of all time.

■ Jennifer Lopez In Zuhair Murad Couture – 2019 Vanity Fair Oscar Party

Once again proving that you don't need to flash the flesh to make jaws drop, Jennifer Lopez attended 2019 Vanity Fair Oscar Party in a seriously stunning Zuhair Murad gown. We fell in love with this look as soon as we laid eyes on it. The star showed up wearing a strapless gown in sparkling shades of blue, purple, and black. It featured a thigh-high slit, as well as an eye-catching ruffle detail that looked like a built-in folding fan. This might just be one of our favourite Jennifer Lopez red carpet looks of all time. The seduction powers that Jennifer Lopez possesses never cease to amaze us.

■ Jennifer Lopez In Tom Ford – 2019 Oscars

Jennifer Lopez was feeling highly reflective — literally — and the star would not be missed at the 2019 Oscars . Jennifer pulled out all of the stops for her Oscar's look wearing mosaic mirrored tiles from head-to-toe. Her Tom Ford gold embroidered, mirror mosaic gown shone bright like a diamond and a disco ball on the red carpet. Her sparkling gown featured long sleeves and a high neckline. Lopez added even more glitz to her glam wearing a thick diamond ring and matching earrings.

The Best Looks of HAUTE COUTURE 2020 Collection

There's nothing like getting us in the mood for the Autumn / Winter 2020 season quite like Haute Couture Fashion week. One of the biggest talking points of Haute Couture Fashion Week which made a spectacular entry of great models, strutting their stuff on the catwalk. It was a breath-taking, head-turning and spine-tingling moment to say the least! Another Haute Couture Fashion Week highlight involved the Elie Saab & Zuhair Murad – in particular it's impossibly hard to miss slogan pieces. Subtle they were not. If you thought the slogan tee already had its moment, then think again, as things were quite literally bigger and better than ever thanks to the countless slogan dresses that emerged on the catwalk. Slogans aren't going anywhere – especially not if have anything to do with it. Not one to be outdone was Christian Dior, who made its catwalk show just as spectacular as the collection itself thanks to its stunning acrobatic display. The all-female circus company, Mimbres, wowed the lucky crowd, who no doubt must have had a hard time dividing their attention between the acrobatics and the new collection. We would have given our right arm (or any other limb for that matter) to have sat front row at that show! And Karl Lagerfeld wouldn't be Karl Lagerfeld if he didn't throw his hat into the ring, as the Chanel Couture show and collection blew everyone away. The branded press studs were a cool replacement for the house's signature buttons on skinny, soft-shoulder jackets and coat dresses. Zippers, however, sliced into below-the-knee skirts and roomy coats (crafted from a patchwork of different tweeds of the same tone) so that they could be opened—as in the show—to reveal tiny shorts or midriff-baring bustier tops in the same fabric. We wouldn't have expected any different! If you are in the midst of planning a wedding, perhaps you will be seeking inspiration from the Haute Couture catwalks. After all, bridal looks seem to feature quite heavily in most shows. The Chanel show was no exception, as the latest Chanel bride made the notion of a wedding dress completely obsolete. She walked down the catwalk in an intricate, embellished swimsuit – along with a floor length embellished veil, no less – which we have to admit bodes extremely well for those braving the scorching UAE heat for their weddings. Definitely something to think about... As usual, we were blown away by this season's Haute Couture offerings. And on a final note, we sincerely hope that our Haute Couture catwalk to awards season red carpet prayers will be answered, as there are more than a few jaw-dropping dresses fit for the most exclusive of awards ceremonies. Will any Oscar nominated actresses be lucky enough to walk the red carpet or even accept an award in a dress from the Couture Spring 2020 collections? Only time will tell... Join us as we marvel at some of the highlights from Haute Couture Fashion Week and the Haute Couture Spring 2020 collections.

MAD VOLUME - MAD CARE - MAD EYES

THE NEW MASCARA

GUERLAIN'S

NEWEST LINE FOR SPECTACULAR EYES

MAD EYES was created with a goal to fuse the performance of makeup with the potency of cosmetic skincare. No compromises, just richly pigmented, long-wearing formulas that work to boost natural beauty with each and every application.

It's a philosophy that comes to life through sensorial formulas and powerful actives that combine to make a four-step routine for creating spectacular eyes. First, frame the eyes with the Brow Framer, then give them beautiful colour with one of the Contrast Shadow Duo. Next, give them some boldness with either the Precise Liner or Intense Liner, before finally adding Mascara for the perfect finishing touch and plenty of sensational lash volume.

Boasting easy-to-apply techniques, rose gold packaging and formulas that blur the boundary between makeup and high-tech skincare, MAD EYES has you captivated from first glance.

Natalia Vodianova's intensified blue eyes set the tone for MAD EYES: an intense and spectacular look.

112 % INSTANT VOLUME*

Multi-dimensional volume, lash by lash buildable coverage and a colour that coats well, it also offers all the results of a lash serum. After four months of use, even without makeup lash fibres appear 15% longer the lash line looks 11% thicker and lash curl is boosted by 14%. Women are 100% unanimous: their lashes look more beautiful.

AT THE ROOT OF THE FORMULA?

BEESWAX

Beeswax that coats each lash for a clean, no-clump lash line and an especially creamy and easy buildable, volume-boosting formula. All so you can modify how many sweeps you make with the Mascara wand and create the exact amount of boldness you want – either throughout the day, or just before a night out.

COTTON EXTRACT

Cotton extract that works on the lashes on two levels: firstly, on the surface to smooth fibres and repair small chinks in the lashes, which prevents lash loss and reinforces lashes' function as a protective barrier.

Secondly, to leave the lash stronger on the inside.

D-PANTHENOL

The D-panthenol gives Mascara resistance and flexibility to make it easier to work the mini-fibres without fear of making them fall out. It also serves up hydration with each and every application.

A PERFECTLY CALIBRATED BRUSH

Designed with fibres arranged in a clover shape across the wand, this star-shaped design boosts the amount of Mascara you can apply with each sweep. Add to that Mascara's special formula designed to reach all corners of the star and you have everything you need for creating an easy, evenly distributed Mascara look.
