Style Crushing On... Mikey Madison

Mikey Madison is fast becoming one of the most compelling young talents in Hollywood. With her dynamic performances and undeniable screen presence, Madison is making a mark not only as a breakout star but as an actress with serious range and staying power. From indie projects to Oscar-winning performances, her career is rising steadily—and she's just getting started.

Early Life and Career Beginnings

Born Mikaela Madison Rosberg on March 25, 1999, in Los Angeles, California, Mikey had an early exposure to the world of arts. She initially pursued horseback riding professionally, but after her twin brother encouraged her to explore acting, Madison shifted gears toward the entertainment industry. Her decision paid off quickly. She began her acting journey with short films and smaller roles, gradually making a name for herself with her emotionally intelligent portrayals and natural on-screen charisma. One of her earliest breakthrough roles came in FX's dark comedy Better Things (2016–2022), where she played Max, the teenage daughter of the show's protagonist. Her performance was lauded for its authenticity and vulnerability—traits that would come to define much of her work.

Stepping Into the Spotlight

Mikey Madison's first major film role was in Quentin Tarantino's Once Upon a Time in Hollywood (2019), where she portrayed Susan Atkins, a member of the infamous Manson Family. Though the role was brief, her explosive performance during the film’s violent climax caught the attention of critics and audiences alike. It was a bold choice—and it paid off, proving that Madison could hold her own alongside A-list stars like Brad Pitt, Leonardo DiCaprio, and Margot Robbie.

She followed this momentum with a key role in Scream (2022), playing Amber Freeman in the franchise’s reboot. The performance showed off her range, moving from charming and relatable to intense and unhinged as the film progressed. Once again, Mikey left audiences intrigued and critics impressed.

The Role of a Lifetime: Anora

In 2024, Mikey Madison landed what is now considered the defining role of her career so far: the titular lead in Anora, directed by acclaimed filmmaker Sean Baker. The film tells the story of a Brooklyn sex worker who unexpectedly falls in love with the son of a Russian oligarch. The nuanced narrative explores themes of class, identity, and the complexities of love, and Madison’s portrayal of Anora was nothing short of transformative.

Her performance in Anora earned her the Academy Award for Best Actress at the 97th Oscars in 2025, cementing her place in the history books as one of the youngest actresses to win the prestigious honor. She was also awarded the BAFTA, Independent Spirit Award, and numerous Best Actress accolades from critics’ circles across the country. Audiences were captivated not only by the emotional depth she brought to the role, but also by her raw, magnetic energy on screen.

Accolades and Recognition

The Oscar win was a monumental achievement for Madison, but it was far from her only accolade. She has been recognized widely for her work, both for individual performances and as part of ensemble casts.

In addition to her Oscar, Madison has received:

- BAFTA Award for Best Actress in a Leading Role
- Independent Spirit Award for Best Female Lead
- Multiple regional film critics’ awards including from Houston, North Carolina, and Oklahoma
- A Screen Actors Guild Award nomination for her ensemble performance in Once Upon a Time in Hollywood

What sets Mikey Madison apart is her ability to immerse herself completely in a character. Whether she's playing a vulnerable teenager, a menacing villain, or a complicated romantic lead, she approaches each role with a grounded intensity that leaves a lasting impression.

What She's Famous For

Mikey Madison is perhaps most famous for her versatility and for selecting roles that challenge conventional storytelling. While many young actresses lean heavily into teen comedies or superhero franchises, Madison has carved out a path that blends indie credibility with mainstream appeal.

Her role as Max in Better Things gave her early recognition on television. Her haunting performance in Once Upon a Time in Hollywood showcased her dramatic chops. With Scream, she tapped into genre storytelling. And with Anora, she delivered an Oscar-worthy performance that demonstrated her range, maturity, and command of her craft.

Upcoming Projects

The future looks bright for Mikey Madison. Hollywood's biggest studios are now competing to cast her in their next big projects, and her name has become synonymous with both quality and buzz.

Reportedly, Madison is being considered for a significant role in the Marvel Cinematic Universe, possibly in the upcoming Spider-Man 4. This would mark her entry into blockbuster territory and expose her to an even wider global audience.

She is also in discussions for the lead role in a reboot of the Resident Evil franchise, where she would play a more grounded, character-driven version of the iconic heroine. If confirmed, the project could solidify her as an action star in addition to her dramatic credentials. Moreover, speculation is swirling about her potential involvement in Greta Gerwig's adaptation of The Chronicles of Narnia. Though nothing has been confirmed, industry insiders say Gerwig is eyeing Madison for a central role, possibly as Susan Pevensie or the White Witch—either of which would allow her to explore yet another genre and demonstrate a completely different side of her acting.

The Rise of a New Icon

Mikey Madison's rise to stardom is a blend of talent, timing, and tenacity. She's managed to maintain a sense of mystery while remaining accessible to fans. She's selective with her roles, dedicated to her craft, and unafraid to take risks. In an era when authenticity is more valued than ever, Madison's grounded presence and fearless performances have struck a chord with audiences and filmmakers alike.

Whether she's starring in independent dramas or making waves in franchise films, one thing is clear—Mikey Madison is not just the actress of the moment, but a defining talent of her generation. With her slate of upcoming projects, a fresh Oscar win, and an ever-growing fan base, she's poised to dominate Hollywood for years to come.

OUTDOOR EXERCISES

BLAST CALORIE
LOAD, AND HAVE SOME REAL FUN OUTSIDE!*

It is the best time of the year for the residents and the visitors of Dubai alike. A time when the sun shines happily and a certain chill in the air makes the long nights all too quixotic... With this beautiful weather, there remains no excuse to not partake in the joys of the great outdoors, when burning calories also gets a lot more fun. Exercising in the gym is great, but we wouldn't exactly call it fun! Taking your workout outside and trying some feel good sunny-weather activities, allows us to burn calories, whilst having a great time with Mother Nature. Besides the overall fun element associated with outdoor activities, research also shows that exercising outdoors is linked with good things such as greater vitality, enthusiasm, pleasure, self-esteem, and lower levels of stress hormone cortisol and lessening of bad things such as tension, depression, and fatigue. We have created a list of outdoor activities that boost calorie burn, tone and strengthen muscles, and definitely let you get connected with nature instantly.

Cycling / Biking

This perhaps is the best time of the year to master your cycling skill and burn those calories in the process. Biking is a simple, fun and effective way to get a great workout since it is an excellent cardiovascular exercise. Just imagine your cycling workout routine at the gym, and now bring it outside, the best thing is that time passes much faster and in terms of effort tends to feel a little easier, due to the pleasant distraction of scenery. Cycling outdoors also works the glutes (butt muscles), hamstrings, quadriceps, shins and calves harder than indoor cycling. Another great advantage of biking is that not only do you get the opportunity to just explore new neighborhoods, places or trails, but once you get the knack of it, you can use it as a mode of transport, for your daily household errands and even for commuting to work.

Walking

One of the most easy to execute exercises for just about everyone, walking is one of the best lifetime sports... And getting used to it is as easy as a leisurely walk around the neighborhood. The benefits of walking are that it is easy on the joints, you don't need a lot of fancy equipment, and you can still burn calories. According to the standard guidelines, walking for 30 minutes, 5 days a week, at a brisk pace (about 4 mph) helps ward off chronic ailments. It actually decreases the risk of heart disease, diabetes and high blood pressure. For those who are aiming to lose weight, walking is essentially the easiest workout to start with. Walking for 60 minutes most days of the week with healthy meals can really help in weight loss and then to keep it off, following the same routine can have lasting effects. If this looks overwhelming, then consider incorporating walking into your daily life by breaking the time into several manageable spurts, like, walking the kids to school or the bus stop, running errands at lunchtime, and a stroll after dinner every evening.

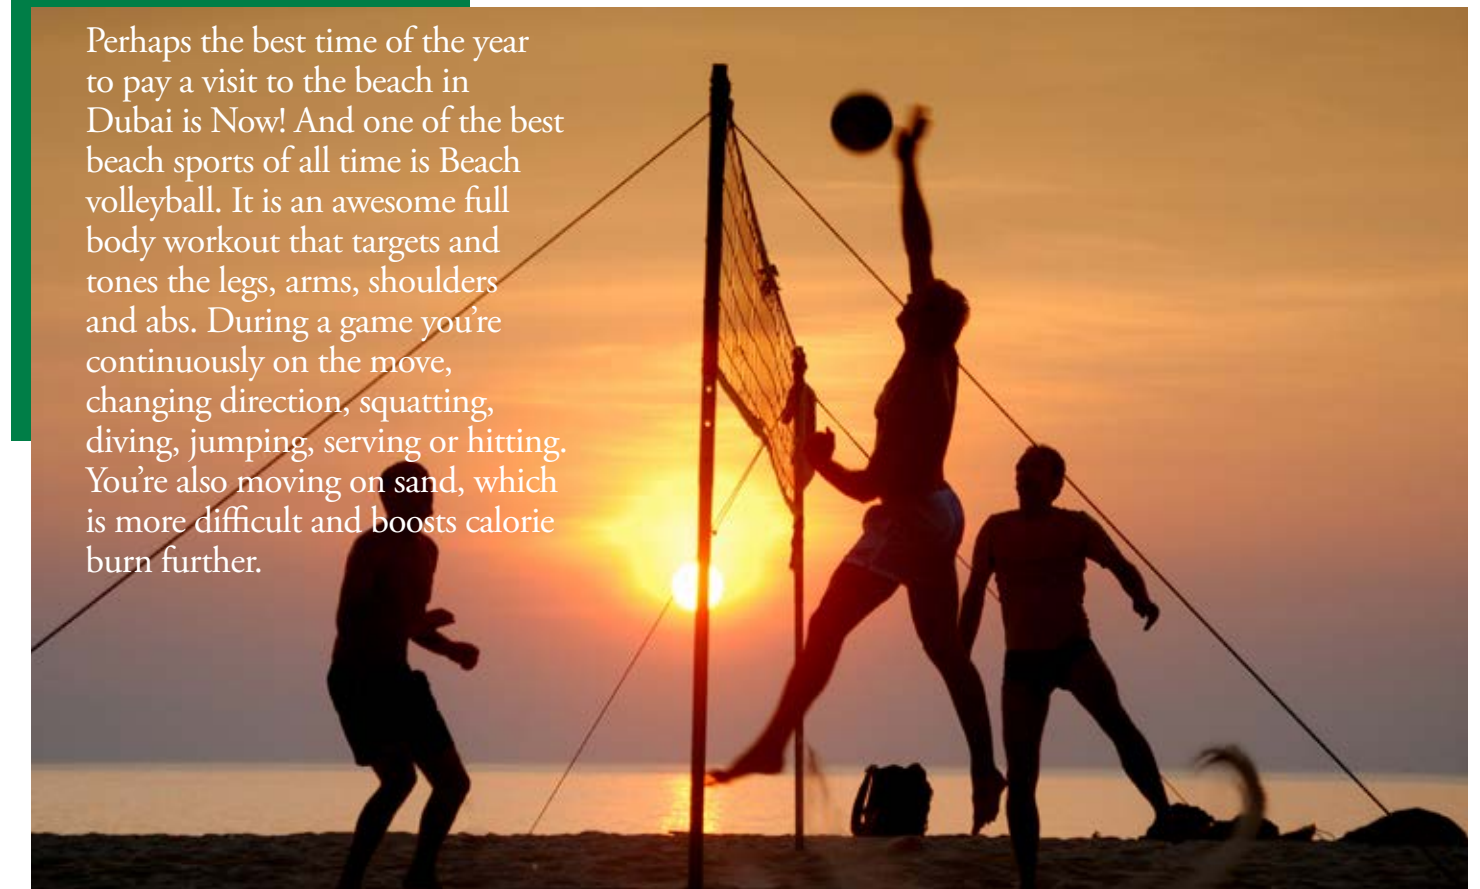

Jogging/Running

Jogging is a terrific sport for your heart and lungs, and it also works wonders in building stamina. If you're trying to lose weight, jogging or running burns calories faster than walking & it also challenges your muscles. A study published in the Archives of Internal Medicine in 1999 found that exercise like running may be as effective as medication for treating depression in some people. However, the key is to start slowly and to gradually increase your time or distance.

Beach volleyball

Perhaps the best time of the year to pay a visit to the beach in Dubai is Now! And one of the best beach sports of all time is Beach volleyball. It is an awesome full body workout that targets and tones the legs, arms, shoulders and abs. During a game you're continuously on the move, changing direction, squatting, diving, jumping, serving or hitting. You're also moving on sand, which is more difficult and boosts calorie burn further.

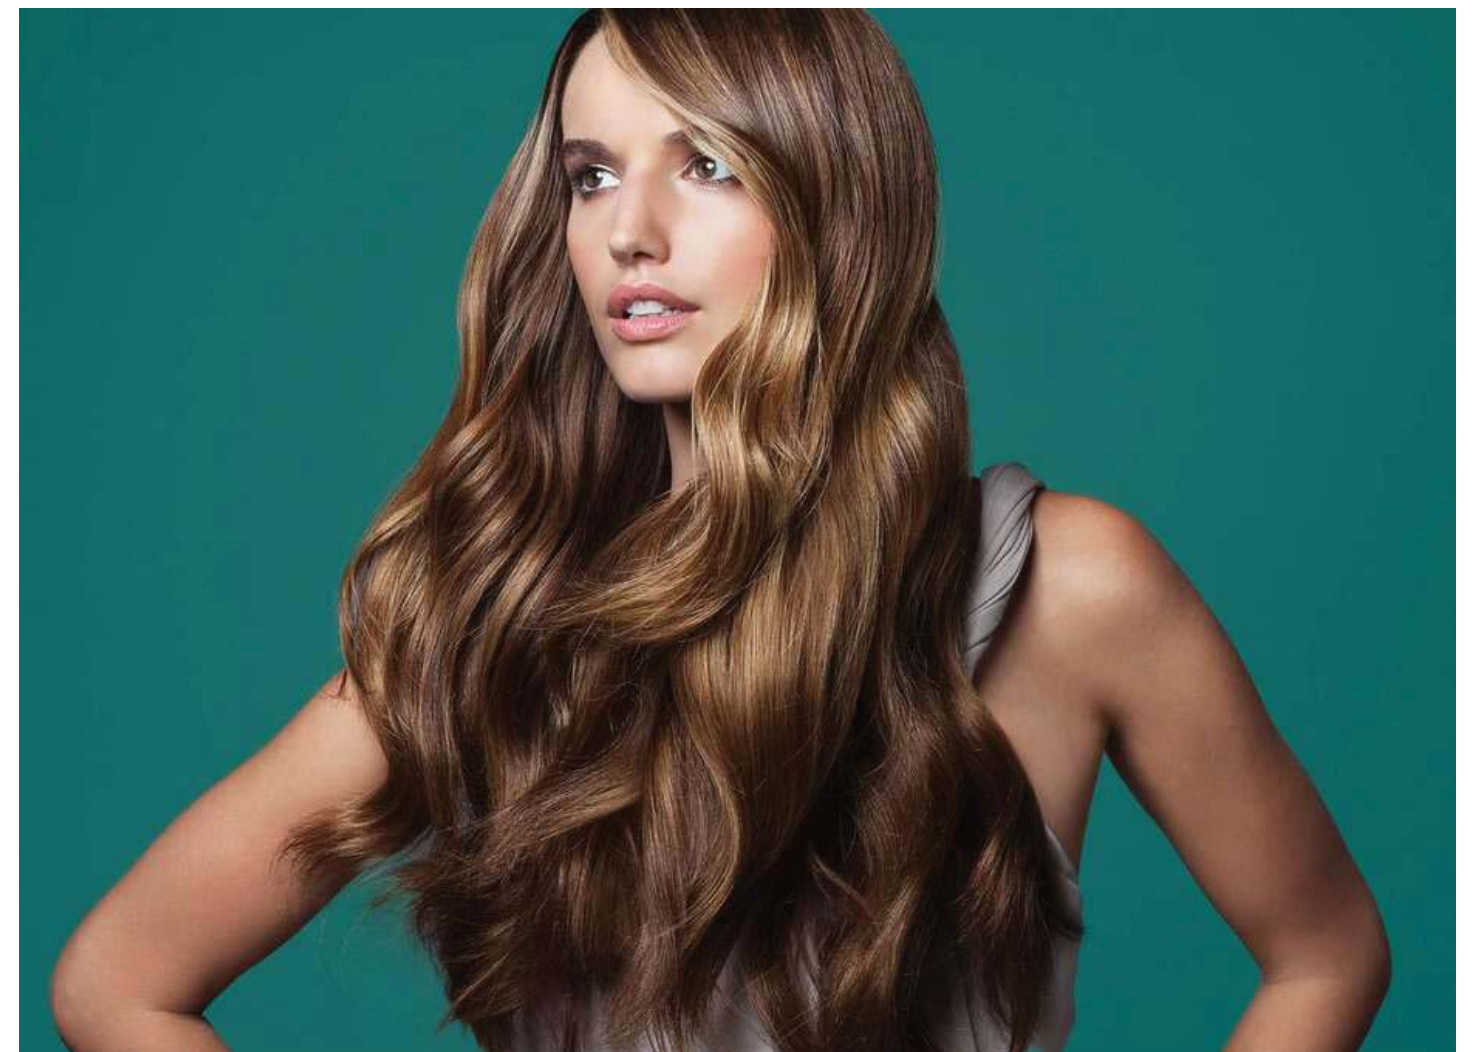

THE RESURGENCE OF THE BUTTERFLY HAIRCUT: A TIMELESS TREND RETURNS

Hairstyles come and go, but some classics never truly fade into the past. The Butterfly haircut, also known as the “flippy” or “feathered” cut, is one such timeless trend that has resurfaced with a modern twist, capturing the hearts of hairstylists and fashion-forward individuals alike.

Originally popularized in the 1970s, the Butterfly cut is characterized by its signature layers and flicked-out ends, creating a light, bouncy, and feminine appearance. This iconic style was often sported by beloved celebrities like Farrah Fawcett and Goldie Hawn, etching its place in the annals of hairstyling history.

Fast forward to the present day, and the Butterfly cut is making a spirited comeback. It's being embraced by a new generation who appreciate its versatility. Modern variations of the cut offer a fresh take on this classic, accommodating different hair lengths, textures, and face shapes. Whether you have long locks or a chic bob, the Butterfly cut can be tailored to suit your individual style. What sets the Butterfly cut apart is its ability to add volume, movement, and dimension to the hair, making it ideal for those seeking a lively and youthful appearance. The layers and feathered ends create a soft, face-framing effect that enhances natural beauty.

Dior Beauty Has Just Gifted Us a Gilded and Glowy Summer

The Maison's summer 2025 makeup collection is as dazzling as its campaign star, Deva Cassel, with brilliant blushes, radiant bronzers, and three sparkling new shades of the Dior Addict Lip Glow Oil

The Riviera is known for bestowing gold on its globetrotting boaters and bikini babes. Sun-kissed skin shines from the inside out, and the salt, air, and sea, (not to mention the nourishing Mediterranean diet) grant an unmatched glow. And if you can't make it to the coast this year, don't fret. Dior makeup is armed and ready with a summery pop coral and a punch of pink splash.

No, those are not the catchy titles of a new prebiotic soda or organic lemonade. Those are the latest luminous additions to the Dior makeup palette, and Deva Cassel stuns in both for the brand's latest beauty campaign. The Italian actress, model, and daughter of Monica Bellucci shows off the new shade of pink — enhanced with bold, shimmering mauve accents — alongside Pop Coral — an intense coral with shades of copper and beige.

In addition to the release of two limited-edition eyeshadow palettes boasting a selection of pearlescent pigment — the Pink Riviera is made up of a range of cool shades while the Coral Riviera is characterized by its warm tones — the iconic Dior Addict Lip Glow Oil is now also offered in three glittery and gooey, limited-edition shades: translucent blue, vibrant pink, and lemon yellow comes in two shades, Coral Bronze and Pink Bronze, each made up of a satiny bronzer, a matte sculpting shade, a blush, and a glowing highlighter, for that sun-drenched effect. Longwear and transfer-proof, the Bronze Glow is both heat and humidity resistant (those brutal NYC summers are truly no match).

For finishing touches, two new Dior Verni nail polish colors complete the sun-soaked Riviera look. Coral Pop is a glittery, coral pink, with pearlescent gold undertones, and Sienna, a very it-girl mahogany shade, hides glimpses of a dark-purple shimmer.

Van Cleef & Arpels, A Maison Born Out of Love

The story of Van Cleef & Arpels began in 1895 with the marriage of Alfred Van Cleef and Esther (known as Estelle) Arpels, both from families in the jewelry business. In 1906, the High Jewelry and watchmaking Maison Van Cleef & Arpels was founded at 22 Place Vendôme in Paris.

Love has nurtured the creativity of the Maison since its inception. The first piece mentioned in the sales records from 1906 is a heart set in diamonds. Alongside luck and nature, this theme is a key source of inspiration for Van Cleef & Arpels and embodies its positive vision of life. This commitment is expressed through precious tokens of love: bouquets of flowers, cupids, lovebirds, secret messages and affectionate couples. These symbols adorn jewelry and watch creations, giving rise to delicate romances, as on the watches of the Pont des Amoureux collection.

The Pont des Amoureux collection, a flourishing story

In 2010, Van Cleef & Arpels unveiled the Pont des Amoureux watch, the first Poetic Complications piece to win a prize at the Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève. Ever since, the collection has told the story of a woman and a man who, bound by affection, meet on a bridge in Paris. Respectively marking the hours and minutes with a double retrograde movement, the two lovers move toward each other for a kiss at noon and midnight. Time seems to stand still for three minutes, before the figures separate to indicate the hours and minutes anew. To experience the poetry of this moment at will, an on-demand animation allows the wearer to replay the scene for twelve seconds. This year, four new watches with precious bracelets enrich the story, revealing the couple in landscape scenes evoking different moments of the day. In turn, the dials take on color nuances of dawn, morning, dusk and moonlight.

Lady Arpels Bal des Amoureux Automate, a fresh chapter

Continuing the story initiated with the Pont des Amoureux watch, Van Cleef & Arpels introduces a new rendezvous. The Lady Arpels Bal des Amoureux Automate watch sets the scene for the couple's tryst in an all-new décor. This setting recreates the atmosphere and charm of a guinguette, an open-air dance café typical of Paris' suburbs and surrounding areas popular in the 19th century. An automaton movement brings the lovers closer together for a kiss at noon and midnight. This tender scene can be recreated on demand with the push of a button on the watch case. The hours and minutes are indicated by two stars set in motion by a double retrograde system, a signature feature of the collection. Within the dial, depth effects are multiplied with five different planes. The palette of shades in grisaille and colored grisaille enamel evokes the chiaroscuro of a starlit night. Festive lanterns and a bed of cobblestones in white gold—handcrafted by the Maison's artisans—recall the streets of Paris. The back of the case echoes the scene on the dial, with enamel decal on sapphire glass and an engraving depicting the couple dancing.

Get Glowing Skin This Summer Naturally

Fast skin fixes to get the gorgeous, glowing skin you want!!

No matter what skin type you have, your skin needs extra attention. There's something about glowing and dewy skin that adds freshness and youth to the face. To fight the blues, here is how to keep your skin glowing throughout the season with some handy and technically simple things.

Drink water

Hydrate your skin from within by drinking lots of water. Carry a bottle with you when you go outside. By drinking about one and a half liter to two liters a day (for at least a month), you will see a HUGE difference to your skin. So drink up and don't let your skin go thirsty.

Exfoliate

Exfoliate regularly. Whether you have an oily, dry or combination skin, by exfoliating you clear out all dead skin, this way your skin becomes more radiant and fresh. Baking soda is one of my favorite exfoliators. Clean your skin thoroughly, remove all makeup, and wash and moisturize your skin before going to bed.

Sunscreen

Sunscreens is important during summer season. Before you leave your house, apply a sunscreen with at least an SPF 15 or more. This will protect your skin from nature's damaging elements.

Organic Care

Instead of using highly chemical-based skincare products that strip off the natural layer of your skin, opt for milder organic skincare. Add natural oils, aloe vera, rose water and pure clays into your skincare routine

Add Vitamin C to Your Lifestyle

Vitamin C is a game changer for the skin and the one antioxidant that brings the long-lost glow back. You can buy serums that consists of pure vitamin C. You can also eat fruits and veggies that contain this wonderful antioxidant. Pineapples and green vegetables are usually rich in vitamin C. Eat them raw or in a salad.

Make Moisturizer Your Best Friend

The right moisturizer for your skin type can totally change the way your skin appears and feels. It does not only keep your skin hydrated but also maintains the right pH level of the skin. When your skin's pH is balanced, it tends to have a natural radiance. So, never skip hydration even if it's a humid day outside

Get Enough Exercise

If the summer heat, sweat, and humidity are keeping you off the treadmill, don't give up. Physical activity improves blood flow, which means your skin cells get more oxygen. Thus, your body heals any tissue damage (like a sunburn or acne) easily

Bella Hadid Encounters the Chopard Ice Cube Collection

ICONIC DESIGN

As Chopard ushers its Ice Cube collection into a new era with a groundbreaking campaign enhanced by Bella Hadid, the Maison reinvents its iconic design through an Haute Joaillerie capsule. A choker and a bracelet blend the cube shape with the brilliance of diamonds in an artistic gesture guided by its workshops' Mains d'Art. The result is jewellery that adds unique artisanal craftsmanship and an undeniably glamorous aura to the urban inspiration and minimalist aesthetic of the collection.

Chopard enriches its Ice Cube collection with two new variations. While the philosophy remains unchanged – harmonious composition around the cube shape – its approach is entirely innovative. This time, the Maison's Haute Joaillerie workshops have been tasked with creating pieces, where the cubes, each shaped individually by a jewellery Artisan, vary in height. The jewellery thus displays a relief profile, evoking buildings of different heights in an urban skyline.

In an ingeniously articulated design, the cubes weave a flexible mesh that follows the body's movements once placed on the skin. This flexibility gives the jewellery an eminently sensual character. The jewellery and the woman wearing it become one, evolving into complete symbiosis and enhancing their glamorous aura multifold: a feat the Maison's Haute Joaillerie workshops have been mastering for a long time.
